Windsor, October 27.

THE following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk, was preſented to her Majeſty by William Churchill, Eſq; Member of Parliament, and William Thomſon, Eſq; Recorder of the ſaid Borough.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE preſume in Duty to your Majeſty to offer our humble Acknowledgments for your Royal Care, the happy Cauſe of the late remarkable Succeſſes of your Forces, under the Command of his Grace John Duke of Marlborough.

The Influence of your Majeſty's Favour to that Great General (whoſe Bravery and Conduct you have ſo often experienced) inſpires him with Reſolutions to encounter all Hazards, and overcome the utmoſt Difficulties, to accompliſh the juſt Deſigns of a Princeſs, who means the Proſperity of her own Nation, and the Peace and Tranquility of thoſe unfortunate Neighbours who want her Aſſiſtance.

And from theſe Intentions of your ſacred Breaſt, and the Wiſdom and Valour of that Heroe, we have Reaſon to hope for the deſired End of all your Victories, which will crown his Glory in the faithful Execution of your Commands, and give your Majeſty the high eſt Delight, as it will be the Satisfaction of your People.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the ancient Corporation of Portſmouth, was preſented to her Majeſty by Sir John Gibſon, Deputy-Governor, being Introduced by Admiral Churchill, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

Which Addreſſes her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Lisbon, October 14. N. S. On the 8th Inſtant Admiral Baker being arrived off this Coaſt, ſent in a Man of War with Letters to his Excellency the Earl of Gallway; Major-General Wills writ alſo to his Excellency by my Lord Rochford, who came on Shoar with Colonel Mundy, and ſeveral other Officers to wait on him. The next Day his Excellency received Letters dated at Gibralter from General Stanhope, who ſailed from thence on the 27th of the laſt Month, back to Barcelona. My Lord Rochford was immediately diſpatched back to acquaint the Admiral with it, who has continued his Voyage up the Streights, with the Forces under his Convoy. General Stanhope has ſent hither the Horſes belonging to Nabot's Regiment, and the Mules he had brought from Barcelona, which are to be employed towards levying the Regiments that are now raiſing.

Portſmouth, October 26. Yeſterday in the Afternoon Sir George Byng arrived at St. Helens on Board her Majeſty's Ship the Royal Anne, with the Torbay, Chicheſter, Colcheſter and Antelope, and a ſmall Prize taken by the Chicheſter in her way from Gibraltar. Commodore Smith, on Board her Majeſty's Ship the Eſſex, with the le Firme, are expected here in two or three Days, with the Merchantmen under their Convoy from the Streights. Sir John Norris came down laſt Night, and hath hoiſted his Flag on Board the Ranelagh at Spithead.

My

Whitehall, October 26. On Sunday the 23d Instant the Count Sanſenerino, Envoy-Extraordinary from the Duke of Parma (being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, and conducted by Sir Charles Cottrel, Maſter of the Ceremonies) had his firſt private Audience of her Majeſty.

Windſor, October 26. The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Devon, at their General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace held at the Caſtle of Exon in and for the ſaid County, on Tueſday the 4th of October, 1709; was preſented to her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High-Treaſurer.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Southampton, at the General Quarter Seſſions held for the ſaid County on Tueſday the 4th of October, 1709; was preſented to her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

Which Addreſſes her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Genoa, October 13. N. S. On the 10th Inſtant the Pink Fly-boat arrived here in three Days from Barcelona, which brings Advice, that the Army of his Catholick Majeſty continued on the Frontiers of Arragon; that the Confederate Fleet was ſailed to the Weſtward, except twenty Ships which were ordered for Port Mahon; and that a Letter had been intercepted from the French King to the Court of Madrid, wherein his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty earneſtly preſſes the Return of his Troops out of Spain. Laſt Week a Genoeſe Veſſel arrived here in ſix Days from Marſeilles, and three from Thoulon, and brings an Account of the general Scarcity of Corn in thoſe Parts, it being ſold at the Rate of thirty two Livres a Laſt of ſuch as is imported from foreign Parts, and forty Livres for what is the Product of the Country. Letters from Rome of the 5th Inſtant ſay, that the Differences between that Court and the Duke of Anjou's Miniſter reſiding there, are daily encreaſed, and it is generally believed that he will be ſoon obliged to leave that City.

Berlin, October 23. N. S. Upon Advice of General Craſſau's March through his Majeſty's Dominions into Pomerania, and that he is advanced as far as the County of Wollin, the King has ſent Commiſſaries to his Camp to furniſh the Army with Proviſions, and concert ſuch Meaſures as might prevent the Diſorders which would be otherwiſe inevitable on their March. General Craſſau diſbanded two of his Regiments, which were ſaid to be infected with the Plague, and left ſix thouſand Poliſh Soldiers on the Frontiers. King Staniſlaus, attended by a numerous Retinue, accompanied General Craſſau in his March, and was expected at Stralſand on the 19th Inſtant. His Pruſſian Majeſty was at Carrig at the Diſpatch of the laſt Advices, from whence he deſigned forthwith to proceed to Marienwerder in Pruſſia, which it is reported will be the Place of Interview between his Majeſty, the Czar, and King Auguſtus.

Dartmouth, October 23. This Day was chaſed in here the Royal Galley, Captain Nathaniel Long Commander, of and for London, from Leghorn by three French Privateers, one of about thirty ſix Guns; all which have lain in ſight of this Harbour ſeveral Days. The Captain of the Royal Galley reports, that about five Weeks ſince he left Barcelona, and that her Majeſty's Ship the Dunkirk had at ſeveral times brought in there thirteen Ships as Prizes laden with Corn; and the Ambuſcade, an Engliſh Privateer, four Ships, three of which had ſix hundred Tun of Corn, the other four hundred Pieces of Eight on Board; that he left Gibraltar on the 1ſt Inſtant, Sir George Bing, with four Sail of three Deck'd Ships, being ſailed thence for England five Days before; and that on the 4th Inſtant he met Admiral Baker, with the Fleet from Ireland, off the Southward Cape.

Whitehall, October 25. This Morning Count Briançon, Envoy Extraordinary from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, departed this Life, after having reſided ſeveral Years in that Character at this Court, where he was very acceptable for his Great Abilities in the Service of the Common Cauſe, and for his indefatigable Induſtry in promoting the Intereſts of his Maſter.

The Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. doth hereby ſtrictly charge and require the Foremaſt Men belonging to Her Majeſty's Ship the Canterbury which are now in Town, immediately to repair on Board Her Majeſty's Ship the Hampton-court in Longreach, in which Ship they are to ſerve, and will be paid their Wages for their Service in the ſaid Ship Canterbury, on Board the aforeſaid Ship Hampton-court.

My Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. is pleaſed to direct, that all ſuch Men belonging to her Majeſty's Ships the Swiftſure at Chatham, the Alborough and Nightingale at Sheerneſs, and the Scarborough at Deptford, as are in and about Town, do forthwith repair to their reſpective Duties, otherwiſe they will be taken up, and puniſhed as Deſerters.

☞ At a General Meeting of the Bond Creditors and Adventurers of the Royal African Company, held the 18th of October, it was agreed, that the time limited for taking the Subſcription to the Coalition be prolonged to Thurſday the 27th of this Inſtant October; and the ſaid General Meeting of the Creditors, and General Court of Adventurers, was then Adjourned to Thurſday the 27th of October, at four a Clock in the Afternoon.

Advertiſements.

☞ This Day is publiſh'd, The Communication of Sin; A Sermon Preached at the Aſſizes held at Derby, Auguſt 15. 1709. By Henry Sacheverill, D. D.
